Remarkable Prophecy.

Some six years before the Federal Constitution was adopted, a remarkable prophecy was uttered under the following related circumstances:

"In 1780, Henry Laurens, former President of the Continental Congress, was sent as Minister to Holland. On his way he was captured and imprisoned in the Tower of London, for fourteen months. When Lord Shelburne became Premier, Laurens was brought up on habeas corpus and released. After his release, he dined with Lord Shelburne, when the conversation turned on the separation of the two countries. Lord Shelburne remarked: 'I am sorry for your people.' 'Why so?' asked Laurens. 'They will lose the habeas corpus,' was the reply. 'Lose th ehabeas corpus?' said Laurens in astonishment. 'Yes,' said Lord Shelburne; 'we purchased it with centuries of wrangling, many years of fighting, and had it confirmed by at least fifty acts of Parliament. All this taught the nation its value; and it is so ingrained into their creed as the very foundation of liberty, that no man or party will ever dare to trample on it. Your people will pick it up and attempt to use it; but, having cost them nothing, they will not know how to appreciate it. At the first great internal feud you have, the majority will trample upon it, and the people will permit it to be done and so will go your liberty."

This is the conclusion arrived at by the distinguished writer quoted yesterday in the Express, and a prediction often stated in our columns during the past seven years. When a people, without even a protest, see whole States disfranchised in time of peace, the ballot taken from hundreds of thousands of intelligent white men and given to hundreds of thousands of negroes, when suffrage and majorities are wrested by military force and radical usurpation from whole States, as in Western Virginia, North and South Carolina, Alabama, Arkansas and Florida,—and, as from 1864 to 1868, when there is a quiet sequiescence in the mode and result of such transactions,—the prophecy made to Laurens, eighty-eight years since, has simply become history. The United States Constitution, in its guarantees of personal liberty, was founded upon the Magna Charta of our British ancestors, and we have seen it trampled under foot more times than the years which have passed since 1730. It is both our fault and our misfortune that this has been done,—that a fragmentary Congress has mastered the federal executive, upset the federal judiciary, and often imprisoned without a trial, tried without a jury, condemned without a hearing, and heard without reason or justice. When Rome fell it was because it disregarded the rights of Roman citizens, and the autonomy of Roman States.

ANOTHER ROTTEN BOROUGH.

Mention has been made in these columns of a huge contemplated Congressional rascality toward Mississippi. We have now the figures in this meditated fraud. As reported by the district commander, the only person authorized to make such declaration by the reconstruction scheme, the negro Constitution in Mississippi was defeated by 7,629 votes.

With this the matter slumbered until the very day of the Presidential election. This matter of date is important, as showing that the knavery, hereafter to be shown, was in contemplation prior to the election, but studiously kept in the background for fear of prejudicing the prospects of the party resorting to it. On the third day of November came the election, and on the same day five of the ci devant members of the mongrel Mississippi Convention, with no more right so to do than the man in the moon, issued a manifesto declaring the bogus Constitution, which everybody supposed dead and buried, "to have been duly ratified and adopted." The way this conclusion was arrived at was by casting out the vote of seven counties which went heavily anti-constitution. And now for the figures. These counties voted thus:

	For Const.	Against Const.
Carroll,	276	2,727
Chickasaw,	271	1,799
Copiah,	356	2,524
De Soto	413	2,167
Lafayette,	293	1,895
Rankin	161	1,864
Yallobusha,	932	1,963
Total	3,607	14,939

Throwing out the vote of these counties the little game works a majority "for the Constitution" in defiance of the commandant's declaration, thus:

	"For"	"Against."
Commandant	56 231	63 860—7,629 maj 'against.'

Now, as the reader may well suppose, the Radical Congressmen who manipulated this thing from Washington did not go to all this trouble for the sake of the negro Constitution, having as little real regard for Constitutions as they have for poor Cuffee, and as little for Cuff as for Constitutions.—Something more than this was aimed at, and that was, in order of importance, first, five carpet bag members to offset Democratic gains in the House; second, a servile pretended legislature to ratify any amendment to the Federal Constitution these people might propose; and third, two surreptitious Senators to offset the two genuine incoming United States Senators from California and New Jersey.

What renders this fraud so peculiarly malignant is the insulting cheat implied in keeping it from the attention of the American people until the very day of election. Those who are thus insulted are the moderate Republicans. Democrats, it was known, would vote against the party, even without this new proof of its knavery, and the trooly loil go for it though it outshamed Hades; but between these were many waverers who might have been turned, and the secrecy of this matter means, as applied to them, poor fools, we'll pull the wool over their eyes till we get their votes. Before the election not a whisper was heard, but now the effort will be to make us believe that 52,624 votes out of 155,351 registered, or barely one in three, means the will of the people in Mississippi, and on this will more vagrants are to be syringed into Congress, and another State, now comparatively peaceful, be reconstructed into anarchy and blood at the inevitable cost, if persisted in, of bankruptcy to the republic. N. Y. World.

A Most Wonderful and Successful Invention!

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.
THE AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.
Awarded the highest Testimonial wherever exhibited in the United States.

THIS BOILER OPERATES UPON PURELY philosophical principles.
It is self-acting, and dispenses entirely with labor and the wear of clothes.
The hot suds and steam, by the action of fire, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the Clothes and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing it perfectly without any rubbing. It has been thoroughly tested and pronounced unequalled as a Clothes Washer by those who have used it.
All fabrics, from the finest laces to the bed-blankets, can be washed perfectly and with ease without the aid of the rubbing-board. For Flannels it is invaluable as the rubbing, rolling, and pressing process, must necessarily full them, more or less.
It is truly a labor and clothes saving invention. Washing will no longer be a hardship, and washing day no longer a terror and a dread to housewives.
The invention can be used in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.
If the directions are strictly followed, success is certain.
The saving in the wear of clothes will very soon pay for the outlay.
It is estimated that 200 to 300 gallons of boiled suds pass through the clothes in thirty minutes; this being the longest time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes.
Having purchased the exclusive interest and control of the Automatic Clothes Washer and Boiler, for North Carolina, we have established a depot in Raleigh, where we are prepared to fill orders or to sell COUNTY RIGHTS. Letters addressed to us at Raleigh, N. C., or Portsmouth, Va., will receive prompt attention.

IMMIGRATION.

The Governor's message recommends to the Legislature the favorable consideration of that provision in the Constitution, which directs the establishment, in connection with the office of Secretary of State, of a Bureau of Statistics, Agriculture and Immigration, as the General Assembly may prescribe.

Whatever the Legislature can do, at present, looking to the encouragement of immigration, the collection of useful statistics and the promotion of agriculture, we shall take pleasure in supporting, and we entirely approve of the views of the message upon the subject of immigration. This we consider of the first importance to the recuperation of the State. The matter, however, as well as all others involving public expenditure, demands the utmost care and prudence. It will be well for the Legislature to have an eye to this subject, in all that it may do in reference to general legislation. It is all important that new comers into the State shall not be embarrassed by severe taxation, or by laws bearing upon the preservation of our [illegible] the quiet of their seeking a quiet home. Every thing should be done by the State to promote industry, quiet and security. But where the bulk of the population is so generally disposed to secure these objects, it is all important that our laws should be simple and just, bearing equally upon all, and, by all means, executed with promptness, but, at the same time, by wise and prudent officers.

The State Treasury, however, is not in a condition to increase the number of paid officers, or to meet extravagant expenditures in untried experiments. We are not sure but the safer course would be for the State authorities to encourage, as far as prudence and our means would dictate, the individual and associational efforts of the State to promote emigration, without increasing the expensiveness of the office of the Secretary of State, or risking the appointment of a State Agent to reside in New York, as has been heretofore proposed.

Our enquiries into the subject, especially in regard to foreign emigration, satisfy us, that the labors of a State Agent, at New York, to operate on foreign emigrants, would be more injurious than beneficial.—The ordinary emigrants who arrive on our shores, and who have been induced to come South, are generally not of a class to make it pay. Personal investigations by an intelligent Agent in Europe, who properly understands the wants of the South, and who has a knowledge of the peasantry and working classes of Europe, would do much more to meet our wants, than any resident Agent at New York.

The whole subject is one of the highest importance and should be particularly considered, before any plan is adopted.

AGRICULTURAL LAND SCRIP.

Much unwarranted denunciation has been heaped on the heads of the old Trustees of the University, for selling the land scrip, donated by Congress to this State for Agricultural purposes, at 50 cents per acre for the whole.

The following is a true history of the transaction,—with which the Associate Editor of this paper, as one of the old Board of Trustees, is familiar.

North Carolina was the only State in the South which succeeded in obtaining from President Johnson her share of the scrip. Subsequently Congress, without annulling the grant, forbade its being located until further action of Congress.

The general selling price of the scrip, in large quantities, was 50 cents per acre.

This price was offered to the Trustees, payable when Congress should allow its location. The offer was made by a gentleman, who was endorsed by Senators Sumner and Wade, and other prominent members of Congress. He represented that he, with the aid of the Trustees, could easily procure the requisite authority from Congress to make the scrip marketable; on which payment was to be made.

North Carolina State bonds were then selling at 42 cents in the dollar. The State had already agreed to pay interest on her bonds held by the Literary Board. It was fair to presume that she would pay on her bonds held by the University. And it was expected that, in a short while, general payment would be resumed.

Now if the University could have got the money for the scrip, at the then market price, it could have bought State bonds, so as to nett to the University over one dollar per acre—far more than had been realized by any other State.

This scheme was been frustrated, because 1st., Congress refused to allow the scrip to be located.

2nd., As time elapsed, Congress, refusing to let the Southern States have their shares, land scrip became scarce and rose in price. Gross exaggerations are stated as to this rise. Agricultural land scrip is now selling in New York, at retail, at $1 per acre.—There is always a large difference between wholesale and retail prices of land scrip. There are few things which fluctuate in price more rapidly. Throw a large quantity on the market, and it will go down again.

If the Trustees will now carry out the contract and buy our State bonds, they will probably do better than they can by waiting. In a short time all the Southern States will have their shares, and then mark the result.

The old Trustees contend that they did the very best, with the lights before them. As an old lady of our acquaintance says, "if men could foresee as well as hindsee, they could always make good trades." How could the Trustees foresee the action of Congress? How could they foretell the rise of land scrip? How many persons have been ruined by having cotton, which in the years, has fluctuated from 60 cents per pound to 10 cts. How many by rosin, which has sold from $7 to $1.75 per barrel? And, after all, was not the calculation to sell at 50 cents, the then market price, and buy State bonds at 42, a fair and reasonable calculation?

There is this to be said in favor of the old Trustees: They did not get one cent for their own personal profit. No job of selling and pocketing commissions, as other States did, was ever given to any of them, or anybody else. The late Treasurer was vested with authority to procure the issue of the scrip from Mr. Harlan, Secretary of the Interior. He was allowed to spend $1,500. He spent only $65. He commissioned Gov. Swain to go to Washington for that and other purposes. Gov. Swain performed his commission with fidelity and skill. He procured the issue, which no other Southern State was able to do. He charged his expenses,—only about $65. This is all that the scrip cost the State.

VOTE OF THE STATE.—Our table, to-day, presents the official vote of the State in every county except Yancey. It is understood that the Presidential returns from that county were informal, in that they only gave the vote for "Grant" and "Seymour," without specifying the names of and aggregates for the Electors. Whether the returns are to be rectified or not, we have no means of knowing. It will be seen that Grant's majority (excluding Yancey, which gives about 175 Democratic majority, we presume,) is 12,476. The total vote of the State is 12,869 larger than that on the Constitution.

"The chief resort of the Radical members of the Legislature is a Radical bar-room and here only does there seem to be a welcome for them. No true friendly hand grasps theirs as they come to the Capitol to participate in the legislation of an entire winter; no smiling faces greet them upon the streets—no; their presence brings gloom and disappointment to a people already crushed and down trodden by their vile usurpation, their corruption and tyranny.

In striking contrast with the arrival of the carpet baggers was the reception of Gov. Vance as he walked from the Yarborough House, on Fayetteville Street, towards the Capitol, this morning. I suppose "Zeb" started from the hotel about 10, A. M., his point of destination being about one thousand yards from that establishment.—Ten paces traversed, and he was saluted, "Hello! Governor, how are you?" and then followed the usual pump-handle handshaking, accompanied by all sorts of talk usual on such occasions. A few paces more, and the same scene is repeated, the pumping operation being made unusually laborious by the arrival of four or five more, who were bound to give "Zeb" the accustomed welcome, which comes from the hearts of all. The Governor, always ready, and his "good word" for all, often making the meeting interesting with one of his inimitable anecdotes, suitable to the crowd and the occasion. In this way, "Zeb's" morning was occupied, and by dint of hard exertion he reached his objective point about 12 M."

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

FRIDAY, NOV. 20, 1868.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Long, Senator from Davidson.

Mr. Graham presented the credentials of Jas. G. Scott, Senator elect from the 12th District.

On motion, his credentials were referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

Mr. Long moved a re-consideration of the vote, by which the time was extended to consider Mr. Avery's, (Senator elect from the 41st District,) eligibility to his seat, until the 10th of December.

Mr. Respass moved to lay that motion on the table; which did not prevail—yeas 12, nays 26, as follows:

NAYS—Messrs. Barrow, Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Eaves, Etheridge, Eppes, (colored,) Forkner, Galloway, (colored,) Hayes, Hyman, Lassiter, Long, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Richardson, Shoffner, Smith, Stephens, Welker, White, Wynne.

Mr. Respass said that there had been repeated efforts to prevent this Senator from taking his seat on this floor, when there was no apparent reason for it. There is no one here who can say that he is banned by the Howard Amendment. Those who oppose him here, do so only on presumptive evidence. He did not take any oath. The opposition say the presumption is that he did, as the law required it; and, from the eagerness manifested here to deprive him of his seat, it is clear that, if their object is not gained or the matter settled, to-day, by political trickery, it will come up again very soon. He was tired of this wire-working and trickery, and he had submitted to it silently as long as he intended to. He was as good a Republican as any man on the floor, but he would not do a wrong, knowingly, to promote party interest or to satisfy personal spleen. Some Senator was anxious for the yeas and nays on this question. He was in favor of it; he desired to enter his protest, and, above all, he desired the people to know who, in this body, are controlled by narrow-mindedness or selfishness. It was clear, to his mind, that the Senator was not banned, and that he did not take an oath. About the time that the Senator was elected Solicitor of his County, the State seceded, and there was no oath required. In Beaufort County, he knew instances where Magistrates were appointed and not required to take the oath, unless they did it from preference. The opposition hold that if he did not take an oath, he was not an officer. What, then, can be his offence, to ban him? He hoped the proposition to reconsider would not prevail.

Mr. Blythe said the law required a County Solicitor to take an oath to support the Constitution of the United States, and the officer or Court, who failed to administer that oath, violated the oath of office and perjured themselves. We, as Senators, are the Judges of the qualifications of our members, and we have sworn to observe the Constitution of the United States, thereby pledging ourselves not to admit any one whom we believe to be banned by the Howard amendment; and he, for one, was not willing to perjure himself. Therefore, he was in favor of a reconsideration at once.

A. H. Galloway, (colored,) said he did not intend to say much, but it was evident to his mind that if the Senator held the office of County Solicitor, and did not take the oath, that those who were prosecuted [illegible] would come back on him. He had heard of speeches the Senator had made during the campaign, that had reflected on his race. He was pledged to pursue the same course of legislation as in Georgia. He was a dangerous man and ought not to be turned loose.

Mr. Rich, Republican, said he thought it very singular that Mr. Avery should be singled out as a mark, when another Senator, whose case had been postponed to the same time, should be left alone. He did not know what influence was working against him, and he did not think it right to make fish of one and flesh of the other. The Senate, on yesterday, by a very handsome majority, had agreed to postpone this case until the 10th of December, and he hoped that the matter would remain as it was.

Mr. Robbins said that certain Senators had viewed this matter in a strange light, and thought Mr. Avery ought to be excluded, because, as they assert, he is a dangerous man. The question is not what kind of a man Mr. Avery is, but it is a question of law: Is he banned by the Howard amendment? He recognized the Howard amendment as a part of the Constitution, and if it could be shown to him that any member on this floor was banned by that instrument, let him be Democrat, Whig, Republican or Radical, he would vote to vacate his seat. He assured Senators that he did not defend Mr. Avery on partizan grounds, and he was glad to say that he had generally found the Senate disposed to act fairly in cases of this character. He did not use this language to flatter, but was sincere in what he said, and he felt proud that he could speak thus of a body, of which he was a member. He appealed to Senators to cast aside all questions irrelevant to the case in point—to forget that Mr. Avery was ever a secessionist and come up fairly and squarely to the point: Is he a banned man?

Some gentleman here advanced the idea that he is banned by the reconstruction acts. If that was the test, he would admit it, and, under that test, the Governor of the State, and a majority of the Legislature, are also banned. The Governor cannot take the iron-clad oath; neither could a large majority of the Senate, and yet the 9th section of the supplemental act of reconstruction requires it. But, Senators, the test in the reconstruction acts does not apply to us now; they expired with the Provisional Government; they have accomplished the purpose for which they were intended, and that was to get us back in the Union. When he took his seat, as Senator, he simply qualified. How did the Senate know that he was not banned?—Simply from his own declaration. Simply on the virtue of his own veracity, and in that manner all of them were admitted.—Maj. Avery says he will swear he did not take an oath to support the Constitution of the United States. The Senate believed him, (Mr. Robbins.) Why not believe Maj. Avery? You say he did take the oath.—Prove it. Why say you do not believe him—why insult his constituents by saying you doubt the veracity of their favorite; why insult North Carolinians by impeaching the veracity of her honored son? Again, Mr. Avery was elected to the office of Solicitor just two weeks before the State seceded.—It was out of fashion at that time here to take such oath. When he says he did not take it, it is presuming a great deal to say he did, and, if he did not take the oath according to law, he was never Solicitor. He may have acted as such, but was never legally qualified.

Again, Mr. Avery was elected just two weeks before the State seceded—at least a month after the war had actually begun.—What does the Howard amendment say?—It says those who hold an office prior to the war, and took an oath to support the Constitution of the United States. There is no evidence here that he did take the oath, and if you vote to expel him, you vote in the dark. He did not believe they would do it, but, if they did, he did not know how they would answer to their consciences or to their constituents.

In reply to a question propounded to him, Mr. Robbins said that he honored the brave soldiers that fought against him; they were fighting for what they believed to be right, but he had very little respect for a Northern man who fought against his own section, and vice versa, and he had less respect for the men who sat on the fence and fought for neither side, because he believed it was a time when it was the duty of every man to raise his arm in defence of his rights and his country.

At this stage of the discussion, the President stated that the discussion was out of order, as the question before the Senate was the reconsideration to postpone; but he would not rule that it was out of order, unless there was objection made by Senators. Objection was made.

It was here ascertained that Mr. Long did not vote with the majority, and had no right to make the motion to reconsider. Consequently,

Mr. Jones, of Wake, renewed the motion.

Mr. Barrow said the simple question before the Senate was on the reconsideration of the vote agreeing to postpone this matter until the 10th. of December. He thought the Senate had already decided that Mr. Avery was ineligible. He was in favor of reconsideration, to dispose of the case at once. He was opposed to waiting until Congress could remove his disabilities. Let him go home to his constituents and they can refer him to Congress. If Congress removes his disabilities, then he can come back to us.

Mr. Moore, of Carteret, called the previous question.

The ayes and nays were called and the Senate agreed to reconsider by the following vote, viz:

AYES—Messrs. Barrow, Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Eaves, Etheridge, Epps, (colored,) Forkner, Hayes, Hyman, (colored,) Jones, of Wake, Lassiter, Long, Moore, of Carteret, Moore, of Yancy, Richardson, Shoffner, Smith, Stevens, Welker, White, and Wynne—26.

Mr. Hayes said that if the Senate had decided, on yesterday, that the Senator was not entitled to his seat, and he had not gotten his disabilities removed, he was clearly not entitled to it now. As to the talk about the party being magnanimous and liberal, they do not deserve any liberality, as they have never shown any.

Mr. Graham said that Judge Pearson had given it as his decision, in Chambers, that the Howard amendment did not apply to county officers, and it was also the decision of Judges Brooks, Buxton and Russell. It, in the face of these opinions, you decide that it does, he asked for no liberality but for simple justice, and he asked all Senators to vote upon this question simply as a matter of law. It was clear that it was not taking an oath or holding an office that banned a man, but both. Is a county Solicitor an officer of the State? He is not a commissioned officer; he is neither a Judicial or an Executive officer, but, like Sheriff, he is a ministerial officer, and that is the point decided by Judge Pearson.—Are you now satisfied that Maj. Avery was either an Executive or Judicial officer, and are you satisfied that he took an oath? He was satisfied, from the experience he had had in law, and acting under a solemn oath, that Mr. Avery was not banned by the Howard Amendment. You hold that he was a Judicial officer, and I deny it, with Judge Brooks' decision to sustain me. If there is any doubt about these decisions, why such haste? Why not wait until a decision can be had by the Supreme Court or a certified copy from Judge Brooks?

Mr. Moore, of Carteret, called the previous question.

Mr. Rich asked him to withdraw it, in order to allow him to move a re-commitment to the Committee, but the motion was insisted on, and carried.

The yeas and nays were called and the resolution passed as follows:

AYES—Messrs. Barrow, Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Eaves, Etheridge, Eppes, (colored,) Forkner, Galloway, (colored,) Hayes, Hyman, (colored,) Lassiter, Long, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Smith, Stephens, Welker, White and Wynne—24.

NAYS.—Messrs. Beasley, Beeman, Graham, Jones, of Wake, Lindsay, Love, Melchor, Moore, of Yancey, McLaughlin, Purdie, Rich, Richardson, Respass, Robbins, Winstead and Wilson—16.

A. H. Galloway's, (colored,) explanation of his vote in the affirmative was that Mr. Avery, in the campaign, had held his (Galloway's) name up to scorn, and told his people to scratch the name of the "damn nigger" off the ticket. Therefore, he would vote against admitting him.

On motion, the Senate ajourned until to-morrow, 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FRIDAY, NOV. 20, 1868.

The House was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by Rev. B. W. Morris, colored, of the House.

The Chair announced that he had received a communication from S. D. Wilkie, Esq., the member from Jones, stating that he was absent from his seat, on account of bad health.

Leaves of absence for a short time were granted to Messrs. Parker, Pearson, McMillan and French.

Mr. Hicks was changed, at his request, from the Committee on Finance to the Committee on Education.

BILLS.

By Mr. Ingram: A bill concerning the qualifications of officers.

Mr. I. said that he introduced the bill more at the request of the counsellor of his county Commissioners, than from any feeling in the matter. The bill was read and referred to the appropriate Committee.

By Mr. Poe: A bill entitled an act to amend an act establishing a rate of interest and to repeal Chapter 114, Revised Code, entitled "Usury." Referred.

By the same: A bill to regulate the sale of State bonds, by Railroad Companies.—Referred.

By Mr. Franklin: A bill entitled an act to amend an act establishing a Special Court in the city of Wilmington. Lies over.

CALENDAR.

The bill repealing Sec. 14 of the Act concerning the government of counties was taken up and put on its 3rd. reading, when,

Mr. Seymour offered the following amendment, which was adopted:

WHEREAS, doubts have arisen in regard to the proper construction of the sub-division 14, sec. 8, of an act entitled an act concerning the government of counties, approved August 14, 1868, and the Commissioners of counties in some parts of the State have been advised that it was their duty to cause new surveys of their counties to be made and maps of the same filed with the Secretary of State, before Jan. 1st, 1869, contrary to the intention of the framers of said act;

Therefore, For the purpose of removing all doubts in the premises, the General Assembly of North Carolina do enact: That sub-division 14, of sec. 8, of said act, shall not be so construed as to make a survey of their counties mandatory, upon the Commissioners, but such survey shall be made, when, in the opinion of the Commissioners, it is necessary for the proper defining of township boundaries, at such time as may be convenient, and, when made, a map and survey shall be filed, as provided by said section.

The bill, as amended, then passed its 3rd reading and was ordered to be engrossed and sent to the Senate.

House resolution No. 2, introduced by Mr. Sinclair, yesterday, which provides that such Trustees of the University, as are not members of the Assembly, shall receive the same per diem and mileage as members, while attending the annual session of the Board, was next debated.

Mr. French offered a substitute, paying such persons $3 per day and 10 cents mileage, while actually engaged in such duty.

Mr. Sinclair said that he had offered the resolution in good faith. His object in doing so was to bring the matter before the House.

He was opposed to allowing a few men around the Capitol to have the complete control of affairs. Now a great many of these Trustees were poor men, and could not afford to leave their homes and business and come here at their own expense.—He would, however, accept the substitute of the gentleman from New Hanover, (Mr. French.)

The Chair said both the original and substitute had become the property of the House.

J. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, opposed the substitute, (and favored the original,) and moved to lay it on the table, when the Chair informed him that this would carry the whole matter. He endeavored to withdraw the motion, but, it having been seconded and objection being made, he was not allowed to do so.

On motion, the yeas and nays were called, and the substitute was laid on the table by the following vote: yeas 74, nays 25.

J. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, who voted in the affirmative, for the purpose, moved a reconsideration of the vote.

Mr. French said he would support the motion to reconsider. He thought that as the State should be represented upon the Board of Trustees, and wished to pay those gentlemen attending the sessions of the Board, their expenses, while engaged in that duty, and nothing more. He thought $3 per day and 10 cents mileage amply sufficient. In his opinion, members of this House were receiving too much per diem and mileage.

Mr. Sinclair said that he had, for some time, observed a movement, on the part of a few individuals located in this city, to make the University a mixed school, and that would certainly be done, if the management of affairs were left to them. He wished to guard against such a thing. The whole people were interested in the University, and they should be represented in its management. His only hope to preserve the Institution from such a fate, was in the Western people.

Mr. Sinclair was frequently interrupted by points of order, by J. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, to the effect that he (Mr. S.) was not speaking to the motion to reconsider, but had entered into a discussion of the affairs of the Institution.

W. T. Hayes (colored) also made a point to the same effect.

The Chair, in each instance, refused to sustain the points.

J. H. Harris, colored, wished to know if the gentleman (Mr. S.) could say that a proposition had been made to make the University a mixed school. He disclaimed any desire or intention of favoring such a thing.

Mr. Sinclair replied that he had been credibly informed that such a proposition had been made, and that a high judicial officer had plainly said that that was the only thing that could be done with the University.

Mr. Pou said that, as a Trustee, he could assure the gentleman that there was no such proposition as making the University a mixed school, and there would not be. He opposed the motion to reconsider.

Mr. Downing said that the gentleman from Johnston (Mr. Pou,) had not entirely convinced him as regarded the motion to reconsider. He supported that motion upon the broad principles of justice. He thought the expenses of those gentlemen, while engaged in the service of the public, should be paid, &c.

Mr. Ingram thought the whole matter premature, and, therefore, opposed the motion to reconsider. He thought the affairs of the University in good hands, and, when action on the part of the House, in regard to its affairs, was necessary, they would hear from the Trustees in a proper manner.

J. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, again spoke in support of the motion. He wished the matter reconsidered and then laid over for some convenient day.

After some discussion, he withdrew his motion to reconsider, with the understanding that the matter would be again taken up.

During the above debate, a message was received from the Governor, transmitting the reports of the Public Treasurer and the Board of location of the Penitentiary.

On motion of Mr. Bowman, the reports were ordered to be printed.

By Mr. Smith, of Martin: A bill reviving and putting in force the provisions of Chapter 62, Section 11th, of the Revised Code, in relation to staying the execution of claims, and repealing all stay laws and parts of stay laws now in force in the State, passed since the year 1861.

Mr. Gunter moved to indefinitely postpone it.

Upon that motion, the yeas and nays were demanded.

AYES.—Messrs. Allison, Argo, Armstrong, Ashworth, Banner, Barnett, Barnes, Blair, Boddie, Bowman, Candler, Clayton, of Transylvania, Crawford, (colored,) Davis, Durham, Farrow, Ferebee, Franklin, French, Gabagan, Gatling, Gibson, Gilbert, Green, Grier, Gunter, Harris, of Franklin, Harris, of Wake, (colored,) Hawkins, Hendricks, Hicks, Higg, Hunnant, Hodgin, Hodnett, Hoffman, Humphries, Hudgings, Ingram, Justus, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Kelly, of Davie, Kinney, Laflin, Long, of Chatham, Long, of Richmond, Malone, McCanless, McMillan, Meadenhall, Moring Moore, Morrill, Morris, (colored,) Nicholson, Painter, Pearson, Peck, Pou, Proctor, Proffit, Ragland, Robinson, Reynolds, (colored,) Seymour, Shaver, Short, Siegrist, Sinclair, Simonds, Smith, of Alleghany, Smith, of Wayne, Stanton, Sykes, (colored,) Vestal, Welch, Whitley, Williams, of Harnett, Williams, of Sampson, Wilson, Wiswall—81.

NAYS.—Carson, Carey, (colored,) Cawthorn, (colored,) Cherry, (colored,) Downing, Forkner, (colored,) Hays, (colored,) Kelly of Moore, Leary, (colored,) Mayo, (colored,) Parker, Price, (colored,) Renfrow, Robbins, (colored,) Smith, of Martin, Snipes, Sweat, (colored,) White, Williamson, (colored.)—21.

The House then adjourned until to-morrow, 10 o'clock.

NEW YORK.

THE UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $4,705, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $3,475.

The difference between these sums ($3 277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater; and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an immediate cash dividend of thirty-three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1868.

SESSION SUBSCRIBERS.

Members wishing the Sentinel for the session will please hand in their names to our Reporters, in either House, or send them to the office. We purpose giving as full and accurate reports of the proceedings as possible. The terms of the Daily will be $1 per month. The Weekly and Semi-Weekly will be furnished on liberal terms.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Douglas Bell, Fayetteville Street, presents an attractive catalogue of fresh arrivals, this morning—Buckwheat and Golden Syrup, Mackerel, Fine Segars, &c., &c. Read his list.

CHAMBERS' INFORMATION FOR THE PEOPLE.—Attention is called to an advertisement of this valuable work, which we publish, to day.

MUNICIPAL.—According to the terms of the City Charter, our Municipal election takes place on the third Monday in January. We understand that, already, certain of the Radical leaders, big and little, real and would be, are greatly exercised on the subject. Whitson, the "Collards" man, is said to hear, as Whittington did, mysterious voices in the tolling of every (Court House) bell, proclaiming him an embryo Lord Mayor—Lord have mercy on the town! Mr. L. P. Olds is spoken of, but a "Judgeship" of the Criminal Court of Raleigh, that is to be, will probably remove him from the arena of competition. Then there is Mr. Coates, whose aspirations are said to be as lofty, in this line, as any steeple he ever built.

"Boots," Professor of Music and Lather, is a candidate for Commissioner in the Eastern Ward, and proposes to "sash away" among his constituents very busily from now until the election,—especially about Christmas. No inducements will prevail upon "Boots" to withdraw, we learn. He thinks that if "de rosin don't break, de beard is bound to come."

Other announcements in due time.

CUISINE.—W. R. Pepper, the renowned caterer, will hereafter have the chief management of the eating department of Prarie's Restaurant, on Fayetteville Street, near Tucker Hall. Pepper is well known in this community, and elsewere, as the very Prince of caterers. He can, like the celebrated french artiste, almost make a good dish "out of nothing," but when he has, as in the present case, all the facilities and materials at hand, the hungry public may look out for something extra and Epicurean.

NEW CEMETERY ASSOCIATION.—It may not generally be known that there is a project on foot, and an Association formed, for the purpose of establishing a new Cemetery, near the Confederate Cemetery.—This is a most desirable undertaking, as the present Cemetery is not only too small, but the condition in which it is kept is a reproach to the community. We are requested to state that books of subscription to the new Cemetery are opened at the State National Bank.

PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD.—The Synod of the Presbyterian Church of North Carolina convened in Wilmington, on Wednesday evening. Rev. D. D. McBride was chosen Moderator and Revs. J. Rumple and L. C. Bass temporary Clerks. No business was transacted the first day.

A FEW days since, in Wilmington, a child of Mr. Isaac Northrop died—or it was supposed to be dead—and a short time after the supposed corpse had been washed and laid out, it revived, and the child is now "doing well."

LEGISLATURE YESTERDAY.—We have no space, this morning, for comment on the shameful action of the Senate, on yesterday, in the case of Maj. Avery. We reserve all comment upon the result and upon the debate until our next.

For the Sentinel.

Editors of the Sentinel:—Strong petitions will be presented to the present session of the Legislature, praying that body to pass some law which will release and forever discharge all persons who have become the securities for others, for debts contracted previous to the surrender—whether the same be on promissory notes, bonds or other obligations to individuals, banks, incorporated Companies, or otherwise,—and let all debts be settled by the two contracting parties.

The first plan is to finally release all securities. The second is, if that cannot be done, to discriminate between principal and security, so as to give the security large exemptions. The third is, to suspend the jurisdiction of all Courts and Justices of the Peace against the security, for the space of ten years.

Let the citizens of all parties hold meetings in every county in the State and consult as to the best means of relief to this unfortunate class and fairly represent the wishes of the people to the Legislature.

We respectfully call the attention of the public press to this subject, which absorbs the public interest in our portion of the State. Respectfully,

YADKIN.

[We publish the above, by request, but our readers must understand that we do not thereby endorse its objects. We cannot give our sanction to any measure which violates the Constitution of the United States or of the State.—SENTINEL.]

OUTRAGES UPON AMERICAN CITIZENS.

The news from the River Platte confirms the accounts of the reported triumphs of the Brazilian arms, which have been published from time to time. The allies have pushed the remnant of Lopez's army from the Tebicuary—Lopez has exceeded himself of late in the cruelty of his actions, and if half be true that is reported of him, he deserves and will receive the execrations of mankind. The conduct of the late United States minister, Mr. Washburn, while at Buenos Ayres, is severely criticised by the American residents there. The New York Tribune, referring to the course of Mr. W., says:

"When the Paraguayans were about evacuating Asuncion, a number of persons, both natives and foreigners, sought refuge at the American Legation. Among them were several Englishmen, and Senor Pereira, the Portuguese Consul, with his family. President Lopez demanded that all these refugees should be turned away. Mr. Washburn relates how one after another left his roof for an imprisonment which was little else than slavery. He did not turn them out; he only read to them the order of Lopez, and left them free to act as they saw fit. At last the Dictator demanded that two members of the Legation, Mr. Porter C. Bliss, of New York, and Mr. G. F. Masterman, should also be given up to him.—"At this point," says Mr. Washburn, "I made a stand." We think it was time. It was but a weak stand, however; and the way our minister made it was to enter into a long correspondence with Lopez in order to gain time. At last the United States steamer Wasp, which was to carry Mr. Washburn home, arrived at Asuncion. Will our readers believe it?—the minister of the United States went on board, and allowed the two attaches to be taken by force from his side as they started to go with him; and so he steamed away, leaving them to the certainty of an awful fate at the hands of the outraged dictator, making no effort whatever to save them, taking no steps to vindicate the outraged sanctity of his office or avenge this insult to our national honor. An American squadron was lying idle in the Brazilian waters; but Mr. Washburn sneaked home.

By this time we have a new minister in Paraguay, and a man, if we are not mistaken, of a very different stamp. Gen. McMahon has been too good a soldier to brook such outrages patiently, and while he is at the capital of Lopez, that ruler will be taught to behave with at least a decent show of respect toward the United States. But the President should at once demand the release of the prisoners taken from the legation, and a prompt reparation for the insult to our flag; and he should send a sufficient naval force to give his demand unmistakable emphasis. We are not in the habit of suffering such wrongs, and do not mean to be patient under them."

It has already been stated, by telegraph, that the President has ordered a squadron to Paraguay, and directed the new Minister to demand reparation for the outrages committed on American citizens. So we shall have a back-down, on the part of Lopez, or a fight,—doubtless the former.

A REMARKABLE SUPERIOR COURT.

Last week was our Superior Court, the first Court held in Orange under the new Constitution and Code. Judge Tourgee presiding; J. R. Bulla Solicitor.

The Judge did not arrive until the 2nd week in November, though the law designated the 1st week as the beginning of our Court, and to continue for two weeks—if the business required it.

The business of our office prevented our personal attendance on the Court. We understand that few persons only were pleased with the administration of the law, under the new Code. Wilson Brown and his son were indicted in three cases—for an assault and battery. The cost against them was $138, for which sum $50 was tax fees for the Solicitor. There was no fine, as the judgment of the Court was not prayed. A $10 tax fee to the Attorney in case of assault and battery is not only unreasonable but oppressive.

There were sixty cases or more upon the State docket, many of them for larceny; in some of which the parties, after conviction, were allowed to give security for the payment of the cost, and were then discharged.

Four negroes, two men and two women, were arraigned for murdering the husband of one of the women. Not being able to employ counsel, the Judge assigned Major Graham, Mr. Argo and Mr. Boyd to defend.

The Judge continued the case until next term, as counsel wanted time to prepare the case, and one of the women had a child eight days old.

Friday, the Judge left Court to attend a meeting of the Trustees of the University. Only two cases had been tried upon the civil docket. There was considerable disappointment and surprise felt on Friday morning, when it was ascertained the Judge had left Court, instructing the Clerk to discharge the grand jury after receiving such presentments as they had to make.

The Grand Jury, having no more important business before them, made the following presentments: All the Judges who had taken part in politics in the late campaign; the infamous article "Work," in the Standard of the 19th of September; the Legislative address; and all secret political organizations.—Hillsboro' Recorder.

For the Sentinel.

The Code of Civil Procedure.

Some six or eight weeks ago, it was announced, through the Standard, by Judge Tourgee, a member of the Code Commission, that the "Code of Civil Procedure" was printed, and in the hands of the Secretary of State, for distribution to the Justices of the Peace.

The Magistrates in Wake have not received this indispensable work, and we hear considerable complaint on the subject. What is the matter? Why is not the "Code" furnished? JUSTICE.

It is proposed by the Radicals to appropriate one hundred thousand dollars for the benefit of the University of North Carolina. It will take something better than money to cure that patient.—Wil. Star.

A LADY AND FOUR CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH.—The hotel at McKenzie station, the junction of the Memphis and Louisville and Nashville and Northwestern Railroads, was consumed by fire about five o'clock yesterday morning. The building was composed of wood, and the flames spread with great rapidity. The sleeping inmates were aroused by the hissing of the flames and volumes of smoke that poured into their rooms. They were compelled to leave the house with whatever clothing could be obtained in their hurried flight. All emerged safely but a lady from North Carolina, who, with four children, occupied a room in the upper story. The smoke so blinded them that they lost their way, were driven back, and, before assistance could reach them, burned to death.—Memphis Avalanche, Nov. 14.

B. F. B. GROWS AMICABLE.—The Louisville Journal and Courier publishes a letter from Gen. B. F. Butler, in which he declares that he is earnestly attached to the South as a part of his country. Indeed, the heroic Ben. tells us that we have no warmer friend than he is. We know that this is true; we remember his course in the Charleston Convention; we remember his administration in New Orleans; we have heard of his rule in Norfolk, and bearing these things in mind we put our editorial thumb on our editorial nose, and imitating the movements of a Savoyard playing on the clarionet, we reply in one word—Spoons!—Norfolk Virginian.

A "girl of the period" comments thus on Mormonism: "How absurd—four or five wives for one man; when the fact is, each woman in these times ought to have four or five husbands. It would take about that number to support her decently."

The Standard is congratulating Lieut. Gov. Caldwell because he "still wears the harness on his back." It is generally worn there, we believe; but, really, we did not know before that Tod. was "that kind of a cat."—Wil. Star.

INFORMATION FOR THE PEOPLE.
The largest, best and cheapest subscription book ever published, and endorsed by all Literary people in Europe and America.

This great work is of itself a complete and select Library for every family. Containing over 3 000 closely printed pages, on all subjects of popular interest, from the best authors and especially adapted to the wants of the people. The daily inquiries received as to date of issue give assurances of an extraordinary sale. THE LITTLE PEOPLE.

A dreary place would be this earth
Were there no little people in it;
The song of life would lose its mirth,
Were there no children to begin it.

No little forms like buds to grow,
And make the admiring heart surrender;
No little hands on breast and brow
To keep the thrilling love cords tender.

No babe within our arms to leap,
No little feet towards slumber tending;
No little knees in prayer to bend,
Or lips the sweet words lending.

What would the mothers do for work
Were there no pants or jacket tearing?
No tiny dresses to embroider,
No cradle for their watchful caring?

No rosy boys at wintry morn,
With satchel to the school-house hasting;
No merry shouts as home they rush,
No precious morsel for their tasting.

The sterner souls would get more stern,
Unfeeling nature more inhuman,
And man to stoic coldness turn,
And woman would be less than woman.

For in that clime towards which we reach,
Through Time's mysterious dim unfolding,
The little ones wish eberah smile
Are still our Father's face beholding.

So said His voice, in whom we trust,
When, in Judea's realm a preacher,
He made a child confront the proud,
And be in simple guise their teacher.

Life's song, indeed, would lose its charms,
Were there no babies to begin it;
A doleful place this world would be,
Were there no little people in it.

DEATH OF A GREAT COMPOSER.—The great Rossini died at Paris on Saturday, at the age of seventy six. He was a man of prodigious genius, a man also of prodigious indolence. God gave him the greatest talent vouchsafed to any lyric composer of this generation, and for thirty eight years he has hid that talent and denied the world all fruits therefrom. He was a gourmand and a voluptuary. His years were spent in ministering to his own vanity and his own bodily comfort, mostly to that of his palate.

When he was young and poor he worked, never consecutively or faithfully, but mostly on emergencies. Having an opera to compose, and six weeks in which to compose it, he passed four of them in idleness, and then, by the aid of his fertile genius, did the work in the remaining two. His ideas flowed with astonishing rapidity. He asked only for pen, paper, and a fit libretto, and, these before him, never hesitated for a moment as to what he should write.

He would compose in bed, and so incredible was his laziness, and so great the fertility of his invention, that when a fine duet that he was writing, and had almost finished, slipped off the bed and beyond his reach, rather than get up for it he took another sheet and composed another duet, entirely different from the first. At the age of thirty five, at the very crown of his life, and in the ripeness and fullness of his great powers, he suddenly broke off work, threw down his pen and gave himself up to idleness and ease.

Up to this time he had composed thirty-eight operas and some minor works. Most of them have fallen into oblivion; the names only are remembered. The unpublished scores are in the libraries of the opera-houses scattered over Italy.—New York News.

It is related of a certain minister of Maine, who was noted for his long sermons, with many divisions, that one day when he was advancing among the teens, he reached, at length, a kind of resting place in his discourse, when, pausing to take breath, he asked the question; "And what shall I say more?" A voice from the congregation responded, "Say Amen!"

Rev. Dr. Scott said, in his pulpit recently, that he would advise every young man, at the outset of his career: First, to be a good Christian; second, to insure his life; and third, to get a good wife. Then he will be happy.
